Pastor's Report

I have more fun answering the question asked by friends and colleagues: "How is your Church doing?" especially after they have gone on at length about all troubles they see in their Churches. Many of these are (or were) really big congregations with really big buildings (or campuses as some call them). Over the years their attendance, membership and giving has dwindled precariously, some to the point of pondering giving it up altogether, selling the buildings and disbanding the membership, and some have done just that. Others have merged many small congregations into one large one (like the Waterbury area). Others have come up with amazingly creative solutions, like the United Church in Bridgeport, which recently sold their building to a Muslim community with the agreement that the remnants of the once thriving United Church congregation could still meet and worship there, so there is now a UCC congregation and a Muslim community working together directly and sharing the space, faith and purpose. Many are struggling to maintain their buildings and their congregations, while some are truly thriving. We should pray for them all!

So when I tell my friends and colleagues that, "My Church is doing Great! We've only got about a hundred members, perhaps about half of them regularly attending worship. This year we repaved the driveway, balanced the budget and even put some money back into the endowment!" they are quite astounded. When asked "How?" I tell them that the secret is that this congregation is one big, happy family who love each other and take care of each other. When someone needs help, in any variety of ways, people come out of the woodwork to help out. That's the secret to being a successful congregation, large or small: it'd called living one's faith in one's everyday life, and our congregation is Wonderful at that!

Can't say it's been a really quiet year. We lost three prominent members: Kay Myott, Harold Hatch and Sandy Kominski; didn't have any weddings or baptisms, but we welcomed four confirmands and two new members. Had my own issues with my back and my father's deterioration and death; other members with various illnesses and injuries, but we pulled together and pulled through it all. Praise the Lord!

Again and always, I am honored to be your Pastor and to work with all of you to keep the faith and make sure everyone really is welcome here.

So be well, do good works, and keep in touch.

Carl

Church Council Report

Church council met 9 times during 2016. At the start of the year I offered to help Kay Myott with the duties of the moderator if needed due to her health challenges. Sadly Kay lost her battle with cancer and passed from us on September 12th.

Highlights of the year:

1. Upper parking lot repaved down to the "Little Shop"
2. Church oil tank replaced
3. A very successful year for fund raising
 - A. 2 rest stops
 - B. Pasta dinner
 - C. Duck race
 - D. 2 flea markets
 - E. Holiday fair

Thanks to all who helped make these events a success.

Of special note, it is amazing what our small church has done with local missions. From coat drives to holiday food baskets. A job well done.

In summary, a busy and at times a sad year for us. In the end we got our work done. Many thanks to all who helped out.

Willard Gowdy

During 2016, we held regular services on Sunday morning as well as two special services, Maundy Thursday, and Christmas Eve. We also hosted the High School Madrigals during the Christmas season. Special services during the year were the brook side service in June and the service at Sun Valley in August. The Annual Meeting in February 2015 for the year 2014. Trustees Report

Committee members for 2016 were: John DelBene, Bill Gowdy, Bruce Ladr and Bruce Ekenbarger.

Two workdays were held, one in April and one in October. Thank you to all who donated their time. A church meeting was held in May and it was decided to pave the upper church parking lot. A number of bids were received and Quality Paving was chosen as the company to do the work. In preparation for the installation of the new driveway, on July 30th, trees bordering the Chestnut Hill property were removed. Many thanks to Tom Hoefle for his expertise and the use of his equipment and to the many people who helped out. The upper parking lot paving was completed in the fall. An opportunity arose to have the side driveway from the upper parking lot to the lower lot in front of the little shop paved, and was quickly acted upon' by the committee and Reverend Carl.

Maintenance was performed 'on both the church and parish house boilers. The water system in fellowship hall was serviced and the faucets in the fellowship hall kitchen were replaced. A dehumidifier in the Little Shop had to be replaced. The push mower had to have some repairs done. One of the metal railings in front of the church broke and Scott's Carpentry was contracted to replace both railings. He also installed the handi-capped bars in the fellowship hall bathrooms. On the fall workday a leak was found in the garage roof and was repaired (also by Scott's Carpentry). The oil tank for the church had a leak and was replaced.

It has been a very busy and productive year for the trustees. Many thanks to our congregation and the members of the committee.

Diaconate Report

Our Deacon's had a busy 2016 assisting in normal activities such as the Maundy Thursday Service and the flowers on the Cross for Easter as well as the Advent Season including Christmas Eve Service and Christmas Day. Our Altar was brightened for both the Easter Service – with Easter Lilies and Christmas – with Poinsettias, donated by our members and families in honor or memory of their family member. We did have a couple of funerals this year with the death of Harold Hatch and Kay Myott.

We were blessed with fantastic weather for our Brookside Service on Father's Day in June and then a late Sun Valley Service in September. Again this year we thank Ken May for all he has done in working with the Deacon's and Carl to set the hymns and music up for our various services through the year.

Services were well covered and there were no changes to our service routine. Carl confirmed three students this year. Although they were unable to attend every class, he had them write an essay regarding their faith and understanding. These were well written and well received.

Carl was away on a few occasions this year for planned vacation and due to the death of his father. Services were covered by the Deacons and by guest pastor David Jarvis. On one occasion we did the Hymn Sing

Sunday which is always well received.

The Deacons fund ended 2016 with $478.86. This balance reflects contributions from our members and $185.00 which was given to a member to assist with heating costs.

Membership was not reviewed as a whole this year although we have had a reduction due to the previously mentioned deaths of members.

Christian Education

Committee members for 2016 were: Judy DelBene, Myrna Gambino, Cindy Meyer and Janice Gowdy.

There are eight children enrolled in Sunday School this year and they are divided into two classes: pre-k to second grade and upper elementary. The teachers chose a new curriculum for the year and both they and the students seem to enjoy it. We now have one child in the nursery and volunteers staff it every Sunday. Chapel is still held on Communion Sunday in the Parish House.

Three youth were confirmed on Children's Day (June 12, 2016). Four youth attended summer camp at Silver Lake. Vacation Bible School took place at United Methodist Church and was well attended by our Sunday School students. Our CE committee (and church volunteers) provided a pasta and meatball dinner to over 60 children and adults on one of the VBS evenings. The Christmas pageant was held during the Children's Chat on December 18, 2016. No classes were held on December 25th or January 1st. These were family Sundays.

Stewardship Committee

The Stewardship Committee met in late September to discuss the 2017 Stewardship campaign. We composed a new letter, and set the date of November 27, 2016 for Stewardship Sunday.

Approximately sixty letters were mailed or distributed at the November 6, 2016 Sunday church service.

We received twenty-six pledges for 2017, with a pledge amount of $38,818 for the General Fund, $1,067 for the Missions Fund, and $5,374 for the Capital Campaign fund, totaling $45,259. We would like to thank everyone who pledged this year, and are grateful for the generosity of our congregation.

Missions Committee

Once again we had a very busy year managing the numerous missions for our church. We started off with One Great Hour of Sharing on March 20th and March 27th. Our congregation contributed $57 which was sent to UCC.

An ongoing mission that we participate in is the sharing of food with the Stafford Human Services emergency food bank. We collect non perishable food items throughout the month but an extra emphasis on the third Sunday of each month. These foods are taken to the Human Services each month. This year, including the food boxes which I will mention later, we collected 970 pounds of food for Human Services!

Another ongoing mission is the 5th Sunday collection taken for the benefit of Safenet Ministries of Stafford. Specially marked envelopes are placed in the pews on the 5th Sunday of any month and the funds collected are forwarded to Safenet Ministries to be used as they see fit.

We also collect tabs for Ronald McDonald House throughout the year. These are delivered by Lee and Ross Kerr to the Ronald McDonald House in Springfield, MA.

This year we collected two large boxes filled with school supplies which were delivered to Stafford Human Services.

The church sponsored four children to go to Silver Lake Camp in Sharon, CT. This is a church camp and the children get a great deal out of it, being outside, making new friends, and learning new crafts.

We took a collection for Neighbors in Need in October. The $114 collected was sent to the UCC.

For Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas we collected food for 8 food boxes. Each box included fresh vegetables, fresh fruit, some canned goods, some sort of dessert, rolls, and a ham or a turkey.

The bakers in our church made cookies for the troops. These were taken to the American Legion to be packed and sent to the men and women in the service.

Once again we collected 36 new or slightly used coats to be donated to the Human Services coat drive to be distributed to community members as needed.

For Christmas 20 childrens names were placed on our angel tree. Members of our church family took the names and shopped for these needy children. The gifts were wrapped and placed under the tree. All were delivered to Stafford Human Services along with 4 pair of pajamas, 16 pair of gloves, 12 hats, 8 pair of socks, 14 pair of mittens, and 3 scarves. Christmas truly is the season of giving!

On Christmas Eve a collection was taken and the money was sent to the UCC to be distributed to retired ministers and their families.

We collected 430 books and took them to the prison so books can be read by children in the waiting rooms.

All in all, for a small church we have very big hearts. It amazes me to read through all the things we have done this year.

We still have a few dollars in our account to start 2017. We look forward to another "mission filled" year. Thank you again for your generosity.

Janice Gowdy, Chair.
